SHERRY

75ML

All served by 75ml. Served chilled without ice.

The wonderful and complex fortified wines of Jerez, Spain. Drunk for centuries and now deservedly having an exciting revival. Produced in a variety of styles and a brilliant match for tapas style food.

Tio Pepe Fino En Rama Spain 15% 3.75

Produced from the Palomino grape grown in the white soils of Jerez and aged under a layer of 'Flor' yeast. A classic ultra pale and dry style with a delicate chalky, biscuity flavour.

La Gitana Manzanilla Spain 15% 3.75

A fino style of Sherry that has specifically been aged in the Spanish coastal town of Sanlucar de Barrameda. Similar pale style to fino but delivering a bone dry wine with an extra salty tang.

González B. Vina AB Amontillado Spain 17% 3.75

This starts as a fino sherry but where the Flor has disappeared and the sherry is intentionally oxidised. A beautiful golden colour with flavours of hazelnuts, cedar wood and dark spice. Perfect with Iberica Jamon.

Solera Cream 1847 Spain 15% 3.75

Forget 'Harvey's Bristol Cream' this is an delicious cream sherry produced by adding sweet Pedro Ximenez to Oloroso Sherry and aged for 9 years. Dark and luscious with flavours of raisin, sweet spice and cooked fruit.

Noe Pedro Ximenez Spain 15% 8.00

A wonderfully intense, very sweet sherry that's over 30 years old.. Dark and syrupy with intense flavours of fig, date and coffee.
